

Currently serving as Program Director of the Adult Neurology ACGME accredited four year residency program at Orlando Health. Directs the Comprehensive MS Center at Orlando Health as designated by the National MS Society. Serves on the Leadership Council for the MS Society of Florida. We are involved in providing neurology medical school clerkships to Florida medical schools as well as other AAMC accredited medical graduate programs. Previously I was a Clinical Professor at LSU in New Orleans where I completed my residency and EMG fellowship under the mentoring of Austin Sumner and John England. I am board certified in Adult Neurology, Neuromuscular Medicine and have the American Academy Electrodiagnostic Boards