

Dr. Kimberly Jones has been the Child Neurology Residency Program Director at the University of Kentucky for the past 9 years. She also directs the Acting Internship Rotation for Child Neurology and serves as Faculty Advisor to over 50 first and second year medical students at the UK College of Medicine. With 4 children at home participating in on-line school, 2020 has provided ample opportunities for Innovation in Education.